School for Special Children

Manila, Philippines

Ortho-Pedagogical Institute

Vision

The Ortho-Pedagogical Institute was envisioned as a special school in which special children and adults could find an equal and best education as the counterpart of the regular education. The school will be the venue for further development of their potentials thus, will provide practical learning experiences that will inculcate Christian Living and foster good Filipino values. The school has expanded its vision by addressing the continuum development and transition of the special children and adults by providing vocational needs.

NUTRITION WEEK

Nutrition Week was celebrated last July of 2015 wherein OPI students dressed up their shirts with different kinds of Fruits and Vegetables.

This program was adopted by our school to create awareness that eating fruits and vegetables can lead to a healthy lifestyle.

BUWAN NG WIKΑ AUGUST 2015

In the Philippines , August is a celebration of “Buwan ng Wika” or National Language Month. Linguistics or the scientific study of language is greatly influenced by history, culture, social and political factors around the world. In the Philippines, the month of August is designated as Buwan ng Wika, which is celebrated to promote the national language. Buwan ng Wika was previously called Linggo ng Wika (the week of the Philippine language). It is a month-long celebration that was extended from the week’s observance of Linggo ng Wika.

UNIVERSAL CHILDREN'S DAY

In celebration of Universal Children's Day last November 2015, 29 students participated together with their parents/guardians and caregivers in creating awareness to "Stop Violence against Children!"

Pastel Colors and ¼ illustration board were used as their medium.

This is one of the highlights of our school program wherein OPI students expressed themselves thru arts.
